RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On September 10, 2019, Ennetta Jeans filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that suffered shoulder injuries related to vaccine administration as a result of an influenza vaccine she received on September 20, 2018. Petition at 1, 3-4. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On April 2, 2021, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1. affords [P]etitioner the presumption of causation because [P]etitioner had no history of pain, inflammation or dysfunction in her left shoulder; her pain occurred within 48 hours of receipt of an intramuscular vaccination; her pain and reduced range of motion were limited to the shoulder in which the vaccine was administered; and no other condition or abnormality was identified to explain her symptoms.” Id. at 5. Respondent further agrees that “[t]he scope of damages to be awarded is limited to petitioner’s left SIRVA and its related sequelae only.” Id.

In view of Respondent’s position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.
